

Photography Policy

Photographs are taken throughout PLMA conferences and events, both live and online. All sessions, networking, and professional headshot photographs will be posted with conference resources. All presenters and attendees consent to having their images used by PLMA for promotional purposes in the future.

Images of yourself may be used at your discretion.

You agree to not use any other individual's image without their express permission.